Resident and nonresident defined

To determine whether or not you are a resident of New York State, New York City, or Yonkers, you must consider your domicile and permanent place of abode. In general, your domicile is the place you intend to have as your permanent home. A permanent place of abode is a residence (a building or structure where a person can live) you permanently maintain, whether you own it or not, and usually includes a residence your husband or wife owns or leases.

Resident

New York State resident — You are a New York State resident if:

- 1) Your domicile is not New York State but you maintain a permanent place of abode in New York State and spend 184 days or more in New York State during the taxable year. However, if you are a member of the armed forces, and your domicile is not New York State, you are not a resident under this definition; or
- 2) Your domicile is New York State. However, even if your domicile is New York, you are not a resident if you meet all three of the conditions in either Group A or Group B as follows:

Group A

- 1) You did not maintain any permanent place of abode in New York State during the tax year; and
- 2) you maintained a permanent place of abode outside New York State during the entire tax year; and
- 3) you spent 30 days or less in New York State during the tax year.

Group B

- 1) You were in a foreign country for at least 450 days during any period of 548 consecutive days; and
- 2) you spent 90 days or less in New York State during this 548-day period, and your spouse (unless legally separated) or minor children spent 90 days or less in New York during this 548-day period in a permanent place of abode maintained by you; and
- 3) during the nonresident portion of the tax year in which the 548-day period begins, and during the nonresident portion of the tax year in which the 548-day period ends, you were present in New York State for no more than the number of days that bears the same ratio to 90 as the number of days in such portion of the tax year bears to 548. This condition is illustrated by the following formula:

$$\frac{\text{number of days in the nonresident portion}}{548} \times 90 = \text{maximum days allowed in New York State}$$

To determine if you are a New York City or Yonkers resident, substitute New York City or Yonkers, whichever is applicable, for New York State in the above definition.

Nonresident and part-year resident

You are a nonresident if you do not meet the above definition of a resident. You are a part-year resident if you meet the definition of resident or nonresident for only part of the year.

Percent of services

The percent of services performed in New York State or Yonkers may be computed using days, miles, time, etc. For example, an individual working in New York State 2 out of 5 days for the entire year performs 40% of his or her services in New York State.
